ROWLAND HALL AND GROUNDS.

PRIMARY PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS.

Rowland Hall, which began its twenty-fifth year the 13th of last September, was established for the convenience of those desiring to prepare their daughters for eastern colleges or give them a finished education without sending them east, and the advantages offered are fully equal to those of schools of the same character in the eastern states.

Rowland Hall is located in one of the most healthful and attractive parts of the city and commands a beautiful view of the valley south of the Great Salt Lake and the Wasatch and Oquirrh mountains. The buildings are all large and roomy, being three stories high, and are supplied with steam heat, electric lights and perfect ventilation.

Rowland Hall is intended to be not only a school, but a well-regulated home. Parents may feel assured that all available means and care will be employed in training their daughters to become, not merely accomplished, but sensible, practical and earnest-minded women.

The faculty, of which Miss Clara I. Colburn is the head, is composed of graduates of eastern colleges, among them being Miss Grace Flanders (Piano and Musical Literature), Mrs. Chas. Plummer (Vocal Music), and Mr. George Skelton (Violin).

THE MOST EXCLUSIVE FINISHING SCHOOL IN THE WEST. ROWLAND HALL CERTIFICATES ADMIT TO SMITH OR WELLESLEY COLLEGES.

SECOND TERM BEGINS FEBRUARY 1st, 1906.
